

UTC WORKSHOP & MK 30 YEARS JUBILEE 2018

The coming Ananda Marga Summer Conference 2018 at Madhu Karuna, Germany, takes place 30 years after the first conference held in 1988. The 2018 jubilee program will be special.

UTC - Utilization Training Camp

All are welcome to attend UTC a special training camp on 26th and 27th July before Madhu Karuna conference (28th July). Workshops on leadership, conflict management bringing morals into the work place and how to hone your assests to be of service in the world. These skills will help create a dynamic cooperative program during the summer retreat imbibing the principals of Neohumanism in our daily lives and empowering us to enact the changes we want to create in the world.

1. Utilization of human resources: The coordination of our interest, personal skill or professional potentialities.

2. Identify specific problems: To identify specific issues we want to take on, or matters to be improved. To examine them with an organizational or geographic focus, local or national.

3. Build groups to tackle them: To join members with pioneering solutions to different aspects of these issues. To bring them together to build constructive solutions.

4. Run programs to solve them: To run 6-12 month long programs consisting of training-camps, awareness campaigns that unites Marga members, mentors and funders around specific problem with the goal to drive measurable outcomes.

Please come and join in this special camp. Become directly involved as facilitator, organizer or idea/skill contributor for the conference program.
